

Fayette County Public Arts Committee / Fire Hydrant Art Contest

The Fayette County Public Arts Committee is pleased to announce the Fire Hydrant ART Contest!

Interested artists (High School Students in Fayette County Schools Fayette County High School / McIntosh High School / Sandy Creek High School / Starr's Mill High School / Whitewater High School) will be permitted to “adopt” fire hydrants within the corporate limits of Fayette County and create artistic designs for them. This spring, fire hydrants throughout Fayette County will be available for High School artists to paint. The goal of this program is to embrace the artistic talents of local High School Students while displaying creative artwork throughout the community. There is no specific theme for this program. However, artists are encouraged to incorporate the character of the surrounding environment and neighborhood into their artwork. The Fayette County Public Arts Committee will award winners for the best hydrant designs. There is no cost to apply for the program.

FIRE HYDRANT ART CONTEST DETAILS

The design should be appropriate for a public space.

What is prohibited on the hydrants?

- Inappropriate words, advertisements, political messages, etc.
- Glued or attached objects.
- Camouflage or designs that significantly reduce hydrant visibility.
- Black paint covering more than 20% of the overall hydrant.
- Should not endorse an individual, business, or be offensive in any way.
- Should not inhibit the functional use of the hydrant.

Potential design themes include:

- Designs inspired by the work of famous artists;
- Designs with a whimsical or humorous twist that will make viewers smile;
- Context-sensitive designs that would uniquely connect a particular fire hydrant with its immediate surroundings;
- Colorful, abstract designs.

The public and private space immediately around the fire hydrant should be kept clean and neat when not directly working on the fire hydrant. Please respect the property.

Registration and selection runs October 3, 2014 through January 2, 2015. All proposed designs must be submitted for approval during this period. Selected applicants will be notified no later than January 19, 2015.

Fayette County Public Arts Committee / Fire Hydrant Art Contest

Painting of fire hydrants can begin on February 7, 2015 and completed by February 28, 2015.

Only designated fire hydrants within the Fayette County boundaries are potential candidates for painting.

Fayette County working with the Fayette County Public Arts Committee will provide brushes and paint for decorating the fire hydrants.

Paint only on the assigned fire hydrant.

You must use only the paint provided. Nothing can be attached to the fire hydrant.

If words are included in your design, all words are to be in English only.

You may use stencils, air brush with masking tape, or freehand your design.

You must stick to the design submitted in this application. If you desire to make changes, you must seek Fayette County and the FCPAC's approval prior to changing your design.

If rules are not followed your hydrant will be painted over. Fayette County and the FCPAC will not tolerate not adhering to the rules of the contest.

Fire hydrants that fall into a state that no longer enhance the immediate area will be painted over. For example, a hydrant that begins to peel or otherwise deteriorate.

Any questions should be addressed to The Fayette County Public Arts Committee at fcpac@fayettecountyga.gov or 770-305-5185

Fayette County and FCPAC will be basing their decision to approve applications for painting based on creativity, originality, imagination, and appropriateness.
